This year's poinsettias fundraiser proceeds will support Rachel Challenge (Crestwood Schools Chapter). Rachel Scott was the first child killed in the Columbine school shootings. In her memory her family created an organization that strives to create a culture shift in schools and communities. The goals are to create an atmosphere of kindness and compassion, to show appreciation, to recognize acts of kindness, to fight bullying everywhere, and to welcome the marginalized.

About 90 students across 3 middle grades participate in the organization that serves the school, the district and the community. No person in the Crestwood chapter receives a stipend. The coordinators, advisors and participants do so out of love and belief for the program. Profits from the Poinsettia sale will sustain the activities not the people. <http://www.rachelschallenge.org>
