*Opening Hymn #188 Come, Come, Whoever You Are

*Unitarian Universalist Covenant by James Vila Blake

Love is the spirit of this church,
and service its law.

This is our great covenant:
To dwell together in peace,
to seek the truth in love,
and to help one another.

*Doxology Old Hundredth

*From all that dwell below the skies,
let songs of hope and faith arise;
let peace, good will on earth be sung,
through every land by every tongue.*

Don't You Need a Welcome
by Hal Walker

*Closing Words

from James A. Hobart, adapted

As we leave one another, let our hearts be secure through every human season.

Let our hearts be secure in times of sadness as in time of joy, in times of failure as in times of success, in times of uncertainty as in times of safety.

Let our hearts be secure in this: we are worthy of love and support, and we are worthy providers of love and support.

Let our hearts be secure, for hearts know and understand and will respond if invited in.

*Closing Hymn

#1018 Come and Go With Me

*Benediction

VISITORS - Welcome! We are glad you are here. Thank you for participating in worship with us today. We hope that you will find a spiritual home here and that you will be enriched in the liberal religious practice and heritage of Unitarian Universalism. The members of this church take pride in the fact that we embrace people of all races, ethnicities, ages, creeds, sexual orientations, and abilities. In addition, we are a “Welcoming Congregation,” which means that we have taken part in a special program, designed by the UUA, for congregations that see a need to become more inclusive towards bisexual, gay, lesbian, and/or transgender people. This congregation is a member of the Unitarian Universalist Association. The principles and purposes of the UUA, which we “covenant to affirm and promote,” can be found in the front of the hymnal, on the UUA website (www.uua.org), and on bookmarks available in the front entryway.

We are concerned about everyone's safety.

If we need to evacuate the building for a fire drill or for any other reason, please follow the directions of the worship leader. Parents and guardians should look for their children on the grassy area behind the annex and should not go to the classrooms. People with mobility concerns or other special needs should proceed to the Founders' Lounge where evacuation assistance will be available.
