SHORT FILM "STATE OF FEAR"

A man stalks someone trespassing on his property, unaware that his own actions have led him to this state of fear.

This film started as a conversation about a lack of empathy around us. We want to tell a story about fear, and how harmful it is to react with violence towards people, places, and situations that are different from ourselves.

THE CHARACTER:

FRANK — [Male, Any age (preference for age 20-75)]

Frank's worst fear is to lose control. He lives in the middle of nowhere and keeps himself boarded-up. Violence is the one thing that has consistently given him back control.
