And we will also share with one another whatever has the shape and the flavor of bread: the earth itself, beauty and love-- Everything exists to be shared, to be freely given, to multiply.

VISITORS - Welcome! We are glad you are here. Thank you for participating in worship with us today. We hope that you will find a spiritual home here and that you will be enriched in the liberal religious practice and heritage of Unitarian Universalism. This congregation is a member of the Unitarian Universalist Association. The members of this church take pride in the fact that we embrace people of all races, ethnicities, ages, creeds, sexual orientations, and abilities. In addition, we are a "Welcoming Congregation," which means that we have taken part in a special program, designed by the UUA, for congregations that see a need to become more inclusive towards bisexual, gay, lesbian, and/or transgender people. The principles and purposes of the UUA, which we "covenant to affirm and promote," can be found in the front of the hymnal, on the UUA website (www.uua.org), and on bookmarks available in the front entryway.

We are concerned for everyone's safety. If we need to evacuate the building for a fire, a drill or for any other reason, please follow the directions of the worship leader. Parents and guardians should look for their children on the grassy area behind the Annex and should not go to the classrooms. People with mobility concerns or other special needs should proceed to the entryway where evacuation assistance will be available.

OUR SUNDAY SERVICE is offered at 10 AM via Zoom. Visit kentuu.org for information to join the service.

A Harvest of Gratitude

by Percival Chubb

Once more the fields have ripened to harvest,
and the fruitful earth has fulfilled the promise of spring.

*The work of those who labor has been rewarded:
They have sown and reaped, planted and gathered.*

How rich and beautiful is the bounty gathered:
the golden grain and clustered corn, the grapes of purple and
green,

*the crimson apples and yellow pears,
and all the colors of orchard and garden, vineyard and field.*

Season follows after season, after winter the spring,
after summer the harvest-laden autumn.

*From bud to blossom, from flower to fruit,
from seed to bud again, the beauty of earth unfolds.*

From the harvest of the soil we are given occasion
to garner a harvest of the heart and mind:

*A harvest of resolve to be careful stewards
of all life's gifts and opportunities.*

A harvest of reverence for the wondrous power and life
at work in things that grow, and in the soul.

*A harvest of gratitude for every good which we enjoy,
and of fellowship for all who are sustained by earth's beauty.*
