We come together to remind ourselves
To treat all people kindly
Because they are our brothers and sisters;
To take good care of the earth
Because it is our home;
To live lives full of goodness and love
Because that is how we will make our world
The best place it can be.

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember him.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember him.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember him.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,
we remember him.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember him.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember him.

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember him.

When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember him.

When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember him.

When we share laughter telling his humorous stories,
we remember him.

When we hear the melody of one of his favorite songs,
we remember him.

When we sit under the shade of one of his maple trees,
we remember him.

When we walk the path through the woods,
we remember him.

When we go fishing in the cove,
we remember him.

So long as we live, he too shall live, for he is now a part of us, as we remember him.
